

INTERESTING LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The Events of a Week Told in a Few Words.

There was a heavy frost Wednesday night, being the first this fall.

Mr. B. Larson, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is recovering his health.

The moving picture show at Cameron Hall was well attended Tuesday night.

Go to Spencer Bros. for floor coverings of all kinds, new rugs, druggists, etc., just received.

I am not now connected in any way with the book and stationery store near College gate, which I conducted last year.

Jas. H. Stone.

The Ewell public school did not open Monday and the patrons are greatly worked up about it. Instead of better school facilities, they seem to be growing worse.

There was a single voter registered last Saturday. This was the last day for registration, and the books are now closed till after November 6, election day.

Work on the house for the florist of the Marshall Cottage is progressing. The "hand-me-down" house has created considerable interest in Williamsburg.

Edward Debriss, a colored liverman, was thrown from his buggy Saturday afternoon and narrowly escaped instant death. He was picked up unconscious, but is able to be out again.

The annual meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be held in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, Richmond, Friday, Oct. 19, at 8, o'clock p. m.

Every reader should have their envelopes and letter heads neatly printed. It is cheaper and safer. We can sell you envelopes and note paper printed as cheaply as you can buy the plain paper.

The many friends of Miss Sadie Mahone are subscribing to a Richmond paper to give her a trip to Niagara Falls and other northern points.

Mr. Wm. Lee, of Lee Hall, spent several days in Richmond this week attending the Horse Show and Fair. He returned last night to be present today at the meeting of the board of supervisors.

T. D. Waltrip & Robinson have opened a store at Iola, and will furnish good James City county beef and pork every Saturday morning. Call and see them.

Yours truly,
T. D. Waltrip & Robinson.

Prof. and Mrs. Walter A. Montgomery will reside on Courthouse Green this winter. They have been staying at the Colonial Inn since the opening of College.

To the State Fair this Week.

Many of our people went to Richmond this week to attend the State Fair and Horse Show. The people from the Peninsula counties generally were good patrons of the Fair.

Among those who went from Williamsburg were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Graham, Mr. D. D. Cotton and Miss Cotton, of Grove; Mrs. W. J. Binns, Miss Silover, Miss Margaret Gore; Messrs. C. B. Trevilian, J. V. Morris, A. Brooks, Russell Binns, E. M. Lee, Spencer Lane, N. L. Henley, John W. Jones, Frank Armistead, J. H. Seymour, John Taylor, and many others we did not see.

There are now 240 students matriculated at William and Mary.

Hon. John C. Lamb.

Capt. John Lamb, nominee for Congress in this district, addressed the voters at the courthouse here Monday. Quite a number of ladies were present.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. R. T. Armistead. The speech dealt mostly with local affairs, and was especially strong for education. He also touched upon national issues the tariff, trusts, etc.

Capt. Lamb is a graceful speaker and a man of strong and pleasing personality. He will get a big vote all through this section.

The sidewalk along Nassau street will probably be widened two feet.

The Funeral of G. E. Richardson.

The funeral of George Eaton Richardson took place last Sunday morning from his late residence at Toano. The services were conducted by Rev. H. T. Louthan assisted by Dr. L. B. Wharton of this city.

The services were held under the auspices of Magruder-Ewell Camp Confederate Veterans, of which deceased was a member. The funeral was largely attended, Mr. Richardson being one of the oldest and most popular men in the county.

Jamestown Exposition Notes.

The parade ground at the Jamestown Exposition will be the largest in the world.

Among the War Path attractions will be an historically correct reproduction of the original settlement at Jamestown as it was three hundred years ago.

The grounds of the Exposition front two and a half miles on Hampton Roads, and one mile of this frontage will be one of the finest bathing beaches on the Atlantic coast. Sea bathing will be one of the real delights of the exposition visitor. Nothing is more refreshing.

The gates of the Jamestown Exposition will be closed on Sundays. This gives visitors an opportunity to visit the surrounding resorts and other side trip attractions at the big show.

The lover of tobacco will find at the Jamestown Exposition the finest and most elaborate exhibit of his favorite weed ever attempted. Tobacco from plant to mouth will be shown in every phase of its preparation together with machinery and methods used in its manufacture into smoking and plug, cigars and cigarettes.

CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES.

A Busy Week in the County's Tribunal.

The regular October term of the Circuit Court convened Monday, Judge Tyler presiding. A special grand jury was in session and indicted Sylvester Pierce, colored, for selling liquor in Stonehouse district. Wm. Johnson, Eddie Simpson and Elijah Knight were indicted for housebreaking. They were charged with entering the store of Martin & Farinholt at Toano on the night of Sept. 21.

Johnson and Simpson were tried Wednesday, found guilty and given five and four years respectively in the penitentiary. They are mere boys and will be sent to the negro reformatory. Knight was tried Thursday and given eight years in the penitentiary.

Decrees as follows were entered: Potts vs. Hicks; M. S. Warren vs. S. O. Mooney, executor; Spencer & Geddy vs. Minor; Ole Broughton vs. Larson. The case of Mahone vs. Pitts was hotly contested, and was argued by Henley and Armistead for petitioners and M. H. Barnes for Mahone, and submitted to the judge for decision. In the case of H. A. Bergh, judgment was given against Erick Larson for $633. Ordered was entered directing the sale of "Peach Lane" tract, same to be sold at the December term of court.

Four erroneous assessments orders were entered, Jas. Gilliam vs. Commonwealth and the City of Williamsburg.

P. R. Driscoll qualified as registrar of Powhatan district, and W. G. Farinholt as registrar of Stonehouse district.

JAMES CITY DOES ITS PART.

By Unanimous Vote Gives $3000 to Macademize Jamestown Road.

A special meeting of the board of supervisors of James City county was held at the courthouse Monday night, the object being to discuss the building of a macademized road from Williamsburg to Jamestown. Dr. H. U. Stephenson, chairman, from Stonehouse; Mr. J. R. Bush, from Powhatan, and Mr. William Lee, from Jamestown—all the members—were present. The members of a special committee, appointed by a mass meeting held by the citizens of Williamsburg, were present, they being Messrs. J. B. C. Spencer, chairman; W. A. R. Goodwin, H. N. Phillips, H. D. Cole, and T. H. Geddy.

In calling the board to order Dr. Stephenson, the chairman, stated the object of the meeting to be to hear the proposition of the Citizens' Committee and to take action thereon, relative to macademizing the public road from Williamsburg to Jamestown.

It was suggested that Mr. W. A. R. Goodwin, state the proposition to the board. He began by saying that James City county would be one of the entertainers of the world next year, and that before it was one of the greatest propositions ever made a county. He spoke of the thousands of people who would wish to visit this city and Jamestown, but that there were only two ways of reaching Jamestown Island, one by water, and the other by rail. As things now stand the water route would have a monopoly, unless a road was built as proposed, and that James City and Williamsburg would

If you want the most up-to-date things in the lines advertised here, come and look them over. If you want absolutely the best values in style, quality and workmanship combined, come and look and if you are satisfied that what we say is true, and you are pleased, tell us so. We are human and appreciate the good opinion of our patrons. If you decide otherwise and are disappointed, tell us so. We are not vain enough to think we have reached the acme of excellence. We admit there is always room for improvement, and our motto is Excelsior.

But Don't Fail to Look--We are Always Glad to Show.

Shoes.

This is a line we have not been saying as much about as we should, but it has seemed unnecessary to say much, as the article speaks for itself and as a rule (the exceptions—there are some—are very rare) has more than made good our claims (we have made good the exceptions) at any rate we wish to say that we have just received the finest line of Men's Shoes to retail for $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00, that we have seen this season.

We can give you B, C, D, and E widths. If your foot is long and narrow our $5.00 vici Bal will suit you.

House Slippers, Nullifiers. High tops are in and many Christmas novelties.

Plain toe Congress or Lace for the man without foot pride but with sore feet $2 to $3.

The best line of solid leather boys' Shoes in the country—not my brag but the acknowledged fact by all shoe men.

A woman's Pat Colt Blucher at $2.00 that beats them all for comfort.

A woman's $1.25 Shoe absolutely solid.

Rubbers from 50c to 90c.

Clothing.

Our new line of winter ready to wear Clothing is now in. A larger and better line than ever. The workmanship is as good, the tailoring better, the prices ranging

From $7.50 to $20.

Every garment guaranteed.

Top Coats.

We have a fine, line large assortment of patterns of Cravanettes and Overcoats prices from $10 to $20. These are all cut with the latest concave heavily padded shoulder and the whole coat breathes of up-to-dateness and merit.

Odd Trousers.

We can truly say that we have a better and larger assortment of patterns than last year with a wider range of prices.

We can fit you out with Cassimeres, Worsteds or Corduroys at from $1.50 to $8.00. The patterns are all quiet and conservative. In some there is just a touch of color to lend brightness enough to satisfy the eye, but not offend the taste.

A good line of Boys' Knee Pants. 5 to 17 years—50c to 80c.—more coming.

A handsome cane given with every suit sold. Don't forget our Dress Suit Cases, Bags, Grips and Telescopes. 50c to $5.00.

It is time to get your winter's supply of underwear. Don't forget us.

Suspenders and Neckwear—a good assortment.

These are a few of the things you can buy at home. At least it will take but a few minutes to look over our line and we always endeavor to show you the best values,
